TRANSPORTATIONAir:

Nice airport is well served by Air France, BA, KLM, Alitalia.

You can check low cost companies such as :

- EASYJET from Bristol and most of London airports
- TRANSAVIA from Amsterdam
- BLU-EXPRESS from Rome

Rail:

if you arrive by train and plan to stay in Acropolis district, the best is probably to stop at the St Roch station rather than Nice-ville station (if you have the choice !).

from the airport to the city center (or Acropolis district):

The easiest is to take a taxi, which will cost around 40 euros.

Alternatively, you can take the bus 98 to the city center (stop at Place Massena) and then the Tramway T1 in the direction Pont Michel (stop at Palais des congres) from Acropolis to the Observatoire:

you can take a taxi or the bus 84 from gare Riquier (stop at Observatoire)

Time tables and maps of public transportations can be found here :

When at the Observatory gate, say that you are attending the WP4 ET meeting. If you arrive by bus, it will take about 5-10 minutes to walk to the CION (meeting room). You can call me and I'll give you a ride.

Plan

LODGING

There are plenty of hotels in Nice.

See for instance :

Staying in Acropolis district is the most convenient since it's closer to the observatory and the bus stop (and it's at walking distance from the sea front and the old town)

A list of hotels can be found here :

In the past we worked with :

- Novotel: <http://www.novotel.com/gb/hotel-1103-novotel-nice-centre/index.shtml> (80 eur if you book early) (this would be my first choice)
- Apogia: <http://www.apogia-hotel-nice.com/fra/reservation-en-ligne.html> (120 eur)
- Campanile/Nice centre Acropolis: <http://webbooking.louvre-hotels.fr/CA/default.aspx?t=bb2a0b8d4af78&s=CA&l=en-GB> (67eur)
- Kyriad: <http://www.kyriad-nice-port.fr/en/index.aspx> (45 eur)

LUNCH

Lunch on Sept 1 and 2 will be served at the restaurant of the observatory. It's a fixed menu so if you have special dietary requirements, let us know.
